

Pravega Lord Of The Strings Guidelines

Omkar Bhalchandra Baraskar

January 10, 2020

1 What is Lord Of The Strings ?

Lord Of The Strings is a online coding competition where participants have to submit programs which play the game of Kryptochase.

2 What is Krptochase?

Kryptochase is a game which is described in the Rules and Regulations document.

3 Is team participation allowed ?

Yes, team participation is allowed.

4 What is the maximum team size we can have?

Maximum team size allowed is 4.

5 Do we have to come to IISc to participate?

It is a purely online event. The participants are NOT required to be present at IISc, and will NOT be reimbursed for any travel, and will NOT be provided any accomodation.

6 What platform would be used ?

We will announce this on the website as well as inform you through email.

7 What are the prizes?

Total prizes are worth over 70K.¹

Also the top tier will be awarded with Digital Ocean credits.

- 1st - 500 credits.
- 2nd - 300 credits.
- 3rd - 200 credits.

8 Is it necessary to have a Digital Ocean account?

Yes, it is necessary to have a Digital Ocean account to receive prizes.

9 Is the final ranking based on the overall performance throughout the contest ?

The final ranking is not based on the overall performance. But there will be prizes for the participants performance throughout the contest.

10 Terms and Conditions

- Pravega holds the rights to disqualify any participant, if found guilty for any malpractices, including, but not limited to, plagiarism.
- The organisers may, at any point, amend the rules without any notice, by posting the amended version on the website.

¹This does not include Digital Ocean credits .